TAKING CHANCES.

Josh Billings once said: "If I wuz called upon to weep over the body of a ded mawl, I would shed mi tears over hiz hed." Josh didn't take any chances. Even though every appearance indicated that he was dead, he'd keep away from his heels. No man ought to take chances when there is a certainty to be had. In buying shoes from us you have the benefit of our practical shoe experience. We KNOW we give more for the money than others care to offer, and in order to give a practical illustration we quote below description and prices on a few "sellers":

BRYAN IN A WRECK.

TWELVE MEN KILLED BUT THE GREAT LEADER SPARED.

Not Destined To Be Killed Until a Second Independence of the People Is Obtained.

Emporia, Kas., Sept. 8.—At least twelve men were killed and ten or a dozen injured in a collision on the Santa Fe road to-night between the fast mail going east and the Mexico and California train going west. William J. Bryan was a passenger on the west bound train, but was in the rear car, probably 400 feet from where the wreck occurred.

Mr. Bryan was one of the most active men in the crowd of rescuers. He helped to go through the wreck, braving the most terrible dangers, assisting in carrying out most of the dead and wounded and paying the greatest attention to their care. His cool head was valuable in pointing out dangers and directing how to avoid them.

MATRIMONIAL.

SHELBY-NAVE.—Mr. John R. Shelby, a widower, aged about 75 years, and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Nave, a widow, nearly as old, were married by Judge Breathitt yesterday morning. The parties lived in the Macedonia neighborhood and came into the city early in the morning and had the ceremony performed as soon as the Judge arrived at his office.

CRICK-CRICK.—Mr. Hanson Crick and Miss Mattie Crick, young people of the White Plains country, were married in the County Clerk's office by Judge Breathitt yesterday morning.

Sixteen experienced millwrights from Indianapolis, are now putting in the machinery of the new Acme Mills and the mill will be ready for business by October 1st. Mr. N. Zimmer, late of the Crescent Mills, will be in charge as miller. The capacity will be 300 barrels a day and upwards.

THEOLOGY VS. ICHTHYOLOGY.

Or the Miracle of Fishes Reversed.

Nineteen centuries since, five thousand men, besides women and children, dined heartily on two loaves and five little fishes, and after the feast gathered up twelve basketfuls of fragments. The original Greek of this marvelous story is as follows: "Koi Kelensas tous oebious anaklithenai epi tous chortous, etc." Matthew, chapter 14, verse 19. Everyone, of course, reads Greek.

That able and erudite jurist, Major John Phelps, President of Hopkinsville Ichthyological Institute, antagonizes the commonly received versions of this miracle; and calmly, we will even say, judicially, seating himself on the grass, (vide Kentucky Reports under heading of "Keep of the Grass"), proposes to reverse this miracle by taking five thousand trout from Uncle Sam's Fish Commission and devouring them, without leaving a single fragment of fish big enough for Grover Cleveland's cat to smell. Maj. Phelps is preparing a strong argument to show that history ought not to repeat itself.

Mrs. Campbell's Will.

The will of the late Mrs. Caroline Campbell was probated Monday with John Stites of Louisville, as executor. The estate, valued at about $50,000, is divided among five sons. The share of Charlie Campbell will be withheld until he is thirty years old, engaged in laudable business and living a sober life.

He is now in jail at Henderson, charged with shooting with intent to kill and is almost certain to be convicted. Mrs. Campbell leaves most of her household effects to the wife of Mr. E. T. Campbell, her only married son. She wills Hugh $1,000 more than his older brothers, and gives Flavius, the youngest, a liberal allowance in excess of his part in order to complete his education. The homestead is to be disposed of as the sons may decide.

Breathitt, Cook and James.

Cadiz, Sept. 8.—Monday was a great day politically in Cadiz. Besides being the first day of the September term of the Trigg circuit court, the Republican and Democratic nominees for circuit judge, by appointment met in joint discussion.

Judge Breathitt spoke first and gave the best reasons he had why he should be re-elected.

Judge Cook, at the conclusion of the over-long speech of his Republican opponent, took the stand, and from the word go, by his forceful logic and handling of facts, succeeded in turning the tide of popular feeling against his opponent. He corrected several errors his opponent uttered against him, and challenged his opponent to say whether he indorsed the present Republican state and federal administrations.

These and a number of other salient interrogatories propounded were not answered.

Ollie James opened the day's speaking with a rousing Democratic speech.

Her Whiskers With Her.

Chattanooga, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Mary Ann Devoe, from the Sand Mountains of Alabama, passed through this city yesterday with her husband for Cincinnati, supposedly to enter a museum. Mrs. Devoe wore an iron gray beard and heavy moustache, the beard being at least twelve inches in length. This was the first time she had ever been on the cars, and she attracted great attention.

I. C.'s Eyes on Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 8.—Col. John McLeod, chief engineer of the Ohio Valley railroad, spent Sunday and Monday in Nashville, and has since been on a trip through the country in the direction of Clarksville, and it is understood, is laying out a route for a proposed extension of the Ohio Valley from Gracey, Ky., to Nashville. He is accompanied by men who are thoroughly acquainted with the country. It is said the line will run through Clarksville, Fredonia, Pleasant View, Sycamore and Ashland City. This line, if constructed, as seems to be intended, would give the Illinois Central a long desired entrance into Nashville.

Senator H. G. Petrie, of Elkton, was nominated for circuit judge by the Republicans, to run against Herschel Goodnight. M. J. Roark was named for attorney.

The September drouth is destroying all late crops and prematurely parching vegetation every where, in some places even killing forest trees.

The patronage of the various Kentucky summer resorts has been much larger this season than for several years.

Col. Isaac W. Avery, of Atlanta, one of the most prominent citizens of Georgia, is dead from the effects of a fall from a porch.

The coal-miners' convention, in session at Columbus, O., will, it is thought, vote to accept the sixty-five cent compromise.

Two marriages occurred in the County Clerk's office Wednesday morning. Mr. Jas. H. Moore and Miss Esther Blalock, a couple living near Dawson Springs, were married at 9 o'clock, and Mr. E. L. Clark and Miss Kittie B. Wright, both of Haley's Mill country, were joined in wedlock a few minutes later. Judge John W. Breathitt officiated.

Cox & Boulware Assign.

Messrs. Cox & Boulware, the clothing firm composed of A. S. Cox and L. C. Boulware, made an assignment Friday, to Jack S. Moore. The firm was solvent, but assigned on account of one bill that was pressing them, and which they were unable to meet. They expect to pay dollar for dollar.

Crenshaw Nominated Monday.

Both the Hopkins and Christiana County Democratic Committees were in session Monday and held a conference over the telephone, the result of which was that both committees endorsed and called upon Mr. R. C. Crenshaw, of this county, to make the race for the State Senate. Mr. Crenshaw went to Madisonville yesterday and will determine while there whether or not to accept the nomination. Should he decide to run he will enter the race with every prospect of election.

Big Toe Cut Off.

Johnnie Prowse was riding a bicycle on Main street yesterday when Joe Wall, son of Mr. J. T. Wall, jumped up behind the Prowse boy on his wheel and in doing so caught his "big" toe in the chain and had it cut off in the twinkling of an eye. The toe was picked up and a surgeon stitched it back, the injured boy being put under the influence of chloroform. It will probably grow back.

Husbands and Bradshaw.

The official count in the Paducah district gives L. D. Husbands 146 plurality for judge and W. F. Bradshaw 46 for commonwealth's attorney. L. K. Taylor, the Populist, ran a rattling race for attorney, carrying Marshall county by 174 votes, but McCracken's vote of 235 for Bradshaw defeated Taylor.

The combined vote of both counties for each candidate is as follows: Bishop, 1,128; Bloomfield, 1,084; Husbands, 1,274; Bradshaw, 1,216; Taylor, 1,175; Lightfoot, 985. For Senator, Ferguson, 1,596; Edgington, 594; Hobbs, 515. The total vote was 3,486.
